

Jessica Lozano

Senior Specialist Business Management

Jessica Lozano started her career with AT&T in April of 2001. She has then carried different roles within the company including as an executive assistant to Senior Vice Presidents. After 10 years of being in an executive assistant role in 2022 she moved to an independent contributor role with the Engineering and Operations organization.

She joined the AT&T Employee Resource Group HACEMOS in 2006 and in 2013 became further involved in events to help raise funds for scholarships for our local students. In 2017 she joined the HACEMOS board as VP Historian and assisted in organizing monthly events for the members. In 2018 she was nominated and named VP of Operations for HACEMOS. During her term she worked on creating new events and fundraising opportunities. She also was on the committee for the yearly golf tournament and has continued to be part of the committees.

In 2019 she was asked to assist with an event for Tackle Tomorrow. She began working with her peer Zane Copeland who was the liaison between HACEMOS and Tackle Tomorrow to provide volunteers. She has then been involved with Tackle Tomorrow events for the past 3 years.

Jessica loves to travel, going to concerts and sporting events. She enjoys watching the local teams such as her favorite the Dallas Mavericks, Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers.

As her brand shows, Jessica is an ambitious individual who strives for excellence in all aspects of her professional and personal life.
